

Joyce Spencer Awards - Round 4 Application

The Joyce Spencer Awards are to support regional NSW textile artists or collectives to deliver new artworks or exhibitions. Named after the textile artist Joyce Spencer (1928 – 2019), the awards are made possible with funds from the Spencer family and Western Riverina Arts, in partnership with the Cad Factory.

In Round 4: One fellowship of $4000 will be awarded to a mid-career artist or group to assist in achieving their outcome.

A further $1500 will be awarded to a highly commended artist.

One mentorship of $500 will be awarded to an emerging artist to assist in achieving their outcome. They will also receive a one-hour mentorship session (in person or via Zoom) with a suitable senior textile artist.

To be eligible, the lead artist must reside in regional NSW. Regional NSW does not include; Greater Sydney, the Central Coast, Newcastle, Wollongong and the Blue Mountains.

Round 4 applications will close on Sunday 2 June 2024 at midnight. All applicants will be notified of the results on Friday 14 June 2024. Proposed projects should be delivered between July 2024 and December 2026.

If you are applying on behalf of an arts collective please fill out the form with the details of the lead artist/primary contact, with additional information about the rest of your collective where requested.
